COURT CRIER DEAD.

Joseph P. Lucas Died at Home in Brookville Wednesday Night.

Joseph P. Lucas, father of Mrs. A. R. Schuckers, of West Reynoldsville, died at his home in Brookville at 11.00 p. m. Wednesday, January 20, 1909, and was buried in Brookville cemetery Friday afternoon. Mr. Lucas, who was appointed court crier when Judge John W. Reed took the bench as president judge in Jefferson county and held that position until time of his death, was well known over Jefferson county and was well liked by all who knew him. Mr. Lucas was present to open the court the first three days of the January term, but on the third day of court took suddenly ill and was not able to open court again. Leakage in valve of heart was cause of his death.

Mr. Lucas was 72 years and 2 days old at time of death. He was a veteran of the civil war and lost his right leg on the battlefield. He was a member of the I. O. O. F., Grand Army Post and Methodist Episcopal church. Was a highly respected and honored citizen of Brookville.

Mr. Lucas is survived by his wife, three sons and four daughters, as follows: Grant, Harvey and Vance Lucas, of Horton, W. Va., Mrs. S. R. Travis, of Brookville, Mrs. A. R. Schuckers, of West Reynoldsville, Mrs. Frank Aulenbaugh, of Brookville, Mrs. Frank Humiller, of Kittanning.

Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

The regular annual meeting of the stockholders of the Reynoldsville Building and Loan Association will be held at the office of the Association at 7.30 p. m. on Monday, February 22, 1909, for the purpose of electing five directors and one auditor and transacting any other business that may be presented.
JOHN M. HAYS,
L. J. McENTIRE, President.
Secretary.
